The Evening Caledonian-Record

THOSE WOMEN'S COATS and SUITS Are Moving Out At 20 and 25% Discount

Why? Because this is a July opportunity in early June. Better see them at once.

You can also choose from about Seventy-five Waists, up to date, high grade Georgette, Crepe de Chine and Silk Waists, one of a kind in most instances at 20 per cent Off

Don't delay your visit to

LEACH & WATERMAN

Globe

Tonight

SAMUEL 'GOLDWYN, Presents

Madge Kennedy

nacomedy photodrama with a straw heart throb that will round out a happy hour. Madge Kennedy's "sisters and cousins and aunts." It is a fetch-

FOX NEWS

A SUNSHINE COMEDY

Our Exceptional Feature: The Globe Orchestra

SATURDAY TOM MOORE, in "THE GAY LORD QUEX" "THE SILENT AVENGER," Episode 2

2 Act Sunshine Comedy

Vose Piano used-Sold by L. K. Harvey, Passumpsic, Vermont

Dancing

LeClerc's Hall

TONIGHT

Hills Novelty Orchestra

5 Pieces

Wrist Watches

Graduation

Chas. H. Howe Carl D. Hovey

Jeweler St. Johnsbury, Vermont

In connection with the

ART BAZAAR

Miss Evelyn Blackburn will conduct a Woman's Exchange

GIRLS WANTED- AT ONCE AT THE NEW

METHOD LAUNDRY.

You Buy Value When You Buy Shoes

Price alone means little—it's the style, the fit and comfort, the long service in daily wear that counts in our Shoes—and yours. These things make value—the safe guide in buying.

We invite comparison, and leave the decision entirely to your sense of value-today, tomorrow and as long as our Shoes are

AMEY & REED

Successors to Bundy & Amey "WHERE SHOES ARE FITTED"

ST. JOHNSBURY Local News

Thesterfield of the screen", as one ective role of his screen career in Traunting Shadows," his latest Robertson-Cole production. "Haunting hadows" is a screen adaptation of The House of a Thousand Candles", story which has provided mateal for one of the most successful olays on the speaking stage for a dende. The story revolves around the depths of his newspaper. drange provisions of the will of an ccentric old millionaire who stipugited that his grandson, John Glenm. should live for a year unin-truptedly in the rambling old eastle ich the old man had built in the diana forest, kewn is "The House tful of the year. At the Please

Mrs. George Newell visited her arents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry, at Johnsbury Center Thursday. M. C. Garfield and Edward Peter-were in Lyndonville Thursday on Stop at Russell Lowrey's store in merville and get a fresh loaf of akecfild Bris', "Cream Flake "Cream Flake Always fresh. H. A. Chesley was in Lyndonville business Thursday Mrs. Charles C. Locke, who is liv-Mrs. Bcattle, was in town Fri-gal business Friday. The Ladies' Aid and Grace Unity lub will hold a food sale at the Methodist church Saturday at 2 297-298 St. Johnsbury." The firm of fford & Stevens on Presenct Ave., or to inform the public that they are PURE TURPENTINE in any tantity desired; also any other wints, stains or varnishes you may

BRASS REFINISHED

Brass Beds, lighting fixtures, electric lamps, etc: Estimates given. Work called for. Send postal. Prices reasonable.

DAVID DUVAL 3 North Avenue.

For

Gemco Rear Tire Holder Invalid's Bedside Table

Clothes

that will make you feel cool and look cool—that's the kind we are selling

Smart Suits

hat are generously cut and thorough-y comfortable for warm weather

Our prices and the unusual values a fabrics and workmanship add to

DEAN P. McLELLAN

Remember The DANCE At Leclerc's Hall TONIGHT Henault's Full Orchestra

55c per couple Extra lady 28c

HOME

enough to try the patience of Job."

"Well, if you would use your eyes spread across the floor. a Thousand Candless' A photo-ity classed as one of the most de-all, is it; well, I'm sorry, but come and Dance at Point Comfort, Joe's about the trim little waist he drew her and, Saturday night, June 12. Mrs. down to the arm of his chair. But she > take anything seriously, and I work all day trying to keep things neat. Look of your cont on one chair, your hat right on the mantel and-"

Mr. Graham laid down his paper a sigh.

Well, Agnes, I suppose we might thed of being magged every night it y. I never complain about what 't I had better earn my own liv--I did once without any trouble, | to deceive!

Her husband arose from his chalr and spoke severely: "Don't talk nonsense; what Is the use of making a

"Nonsense-it's more nonsense to be slave for a man, and I'm tired of it." she flung back over her shoulder as she hastened to the kitchen, partly to Polar Cub Electric Fans at The attend to the cooking supper and partadv. Iy to hide the falling tears.

Presently her husband appeared at "Wait, Jim," she cried, but the front door closed before she could finish the

Regardless of the over-brown chickon in the oven she put her head on the

But then he might have known that I didn't mean them, and he didn't seem to care if I did leave; probably he'd be glad," and a fresh flood of tsars St. Johnsbury, Vt. came, but after a while she arose with n air of determination, and taking Reed, Misses Johnie and Nellie Ray dinner from the stove conguit d the mirror, to be confronted with very red and Then eyes, and her new silk waist spotzed with tear

Half an hour later, a veil hiding her tear-stained eyes, she locked the door and started for her dear chain Isabelle's apartments, to let Jim see that he could get along without him.

She hurried along the avenue, intent on taking the car just coming in sight. then a fall and a sharp pain in her

$5.00 From around the corner someone $3.50 appeared, and a familiar voice was in

$4.00 ther car; "Are you hurt, Puss? Tell me Jericho. $4.00 quick."

ou?" she gusped.

ne last hour," he replied carclessly. With his arm to support her she hobbled home in silence, but once inside ed afresh as her husband turned towards the hall to hang his hat and throw them anywhere. I-I love to see them 'round; and, Jimmy, I was all fired and cross, and I truly didn't mean it," she concluded from the depths of his shoulder.

The dinner had lost its flavor, but the diners were radianaly, happy enough to overlook it, and a fragrant cup of coffee made a pleasunt finish. "Jimmy." she said, "just think, married 'most a year and our first quarrel. Wasnt' it silly?"

Mr. Graham lighting his eigar. chair and put her arms about his neck. and will soon move his family here, "We'll both do just as we like, won't unresisting, drew her to lais knee. he ended home, Isn't it?"

Smoked Salt With Tobacco.

smoking at such a rate.

"I tolled after it, sir, as some men London Chronicle.

what a looking room! If you aren't

"Why, what's the matter; what's up now?" inquired Mr. Graham from the took at that rug, and after I've eleaned all day, too," And his wife pointed an accusing finger at the mud tracks that give me n kiss and say that you forgive it this time." And putting an arm Wilkie's orchestra.

Mrs. Ella Harvan and Miss Ethel Jarran of Waterville, P. Q., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coats

Oh, that's just like you—you never and you can have your house Just as on please," she said with sareasm.

fuss over nothing?"

ie dinling room door in hat and coat. "You needn't wait up for me; I have key. Good evening," he said coldly.

Altehen table and wept, "Oh, why did I ever say such things! Mantpelie "Not much. Oh, Jimmy, where were

Just been walking around the block

"Don't, please," she cried; "just

"So silly it will be the fast," said ve? And nobody 'Il fuss, for it's truly

She paused as her husband for the second time that evening, but now all "It's home where my Hitle wife Is."

(Copyright, 1919, McCture Newspaper Syndicate.)

salt was probably Doctor Parr's. Tal. Palmer, the American Express mes fourd records that he used to fill his pipe half with the finest tobacco and Hall property on Backer avenue half with salt. After that it is not very surprising to learn that he smoked "with a philosophical calm

On one occasion when the two met, months in Groton, have returned Charles Lamb's furious smoking of home. Mr. Graham, accompanied by the strongest tobacco filled Doctor his brother, Irving W. Graham, of Parr with astonishment. Gently have Franklin, N. H., left Thursday aftering down his pipe, he inquired how moon for Boston where the former Lamb bad arrived at his power of will receive treatment from an eye specialist. .

All memebers of the American Le-"I folied after it, sir, as some men gion are specially urged to attend a legion meeting in Grand Army hall.

Mahogany Serving Trays

sizes, round and oblong, plain and glass covered. Prices $6.50 to $12.50

THE BERRY-BALL DRY GOODS CO.

2 Reel Western Drama

ST. JOHNSBURY Local News

"Strictly Confidential" by Jerome K. Jerome, the noted English novelist presents delightful Madge Kennedy s well get this seriled. I'm getting her screen career. As the popular u do, and after all I furnish the charming little star is more delightthe for a home," he ended angrity, ful and irresistible than ever. See It was a very unfortunate remark "Strictly Confidential" at the Globe st at that moment, and the tears tanight. It's a bright rollicking se at that moment, and the tears to hight. It's a bright rotacking field Mrs. Graham's eyes in spite of cornerly of a sancy sourcette and sever effects to keep them back. "Very cateen sancy servants. It's a Gold-li, if that's the way you feel. I very Picture. "Oh what a tangled with we weave, when first we practise > remain for some time for John W. Gordon of Baire returned to his home in the Granite city Fri-day morning after making a short u. of Caledonia and Orleans county in the interests of his candidacy for ongress from this district.

> Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Chency are moving from LaTayete to No. 2 cuntain avenue. Rev. George A Martin gave the commencement address at the gindu-Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Massey visited Mr. and Mr. Beet Massey and

Ac. and Mrs. Orum Stevens at North Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leonard ve returned from their wedding in and are at their home on Port-

Donald Gray of Waterbury is here kere to play base ball this Fummer. H. E. Gray of the Graylawn farms Waterbu is here on business. Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harris are home from several days' visit at

Mrs. Ine Richardson, Mrs. to attend the graduating exer

Mr. and Mr. Archie Campbell ont Thursday to Woodstock to visit cir parents The many friends of Horace Kid der will be sorry to hear he is seri-cusly ill with pneumonia at his home on Railroad street. Miss Sadie Hocker is earing for him.

Lyman Helton of Concord has purused a Ford coupe of the Corner Miss Florence Day, who has been teaching school at Barton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cummings Thursda you her way home to Miss Margaret L. Ling of Exeter.

N. H., is here visiting her brother, Michael Ling, for a few days. Mrs. George H. Stearns leaves Friday night to attend the graduating exercises of the Bridgewater Normal chool of which her daughter. Miss the cheery living room the tears start. Helen Stearns is one of the graduates She plans to be away about six weeks visiting friends.

Miss Elizabeth Fisher, field representative of the Junior field Cross
New England division, was here

Wednesday.

Dolphile Southier of Irasburg of the U. S. Health service, is in Brightlook hospital. Mrs. Albert Spaulding of Lyndon-ville visited here Thursday. Members of W. R. Knapp Post will meet in front of G. A. R. Hall at p. m., Sunday to attend the Flag Day services at the Globe Theatre, A. B. Dow's agency has sold the residence at 41 Portland street for Carl D. Hovey to Norris D. Blake

Mr. Blake is connected with th His wife went softly over to his Likke-Cowling Manufacturing Co Arthur G. Sprague, Charles W. Steele, Dr. F. E. Farmer and D Robert H. Smith of Akron, O., r turned Thursday night from the pre-Serves of the Scot Fish and Game Club about 175 miles from Quebec. They had excellent luck fishing and Dr. Farmer landed the biggest trout when he caught one that weighed over three pounds, C. E. Kirk, the real estate agent, has sold the John Underwood prop The strangest way of taking his city on Cherry street to George He has also sold the A. S. John D. and Irving Kelley of Morrisville. Possession in both cases in

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman R. Graham who have been spending the past two

Saturday evening at 8 o'clock to make the Fourth of July in St. Johnsbury. Polar Cub Electric Fans at The Peck Co.

PLEASE - U - THEATRE TODAY

H. B. Warner

'Haunting Shadows'

"THE HOUSE OF A THOUSAND CANDLES" As a stage play "The House of a Thousand Candles" has proven one of the greatest successes, as a photoplay it is a classic. For real thrills and mystery it is unsurpassed.

A picturization of Nicholas Meredith's fascinating

King, Violin

Music: Mrs. A. J. Remillard, Piano, Miss Irma

SATURDAY "THE SAGEBUSHER" The Photoplay of the novel by Emerson Hough, with an All Star Cast. A Great Author's Production in seven reels. Brand New Mack Sennett Comedy

"FRESH FROM THE CITY"

PEARL WHITE, in "THE BLACK SECRET

We Wish You Would

take time to come in and just look the place over. No doubt you find it entirely satisfactory to give your order over the telephone or to our salesman, but there are one hundred and one things in a store like ours that you may never think of unless your attention is called specially to them. Just now there are so many things to use during the warm months. Things that make your table so much more satisfying. Come in.

F. A. SCOTT CO.

Pathe News

RANDALL'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Friday and Saturday Specials

$20.00 Snowball Washing Machines 1 only $9.00 Baby Sulkie $2.50 Willow Clothes Baskets $2.19 $1.49 Hair Floor Brushes $3.50 Full Size Leatherette Suit Cases with long straps $2.49 Round Aluminum Rousters $1.89 Aluminum Desert Spoons $7.50 Boys' Rubber Tired Tricycles Special Swing Hammock $4.95 Special Couch Hammock, good springs $12.95 Shino Polish Mops $1.00 Bread Raising Pans $3.25 Ironing Boards 2.75 1 Lot St. Dennis Cups and Saucers 15c package Tissue Toilet Paper 2 for 25c $1.25 1 qt. Grey Enamel Double Boilers sizes Grey Enamel Fireless Cooker Pots 14 in, and 16 in. Matting Traveling Bags 98c and$1.25 The Thor Electric Vacuum Cleaner with all attachments $38.50 75c Vanity Fair Stationery 50c Lyknu Furniture Polish 34c bottle

E. N. RANDALL & CO.

77 and 81 Railroad Street